

Coating Thickness Gauge Aluminium & Steel

The coating thickness gauge is designed for the safe measurement of paint or coating thickness on metal surfaces.

Additional Information

- For use on either steel or aluminium metal surfaces with flat or curved profiles.
- Auto detection of base material: ferrous (steel, etc) and non-ferrous (aluminium, copper, etc) metals.
- Applications include: automotive bodywork, commodity inspection, manufacturing. Ideal for both workshop & outdoor use.
- Contents include: 2x calibration base (F/NF), 5 x standard calibration foil.
- Requires 2 x AAA batteries (included). Please refer to instructions for use & technical specification. CE, UKCA & RoHS compliant.

<http://powertec.co.uk/product/92604>

